

The Hocking Sentinel.

Donovan—Artistic Tailor.

Local and Personal.

Mr. Jacob Seesholtz, one of the old veterans of South Perry, was a welcome visitor in Logan this week.

Matt Martin, the capital city's popular constable, was in the city the fore part of the week on official business.

There is to be a Demorest Silver Medal Contest and any one wishing to take part will please call at Mr. Chas. Wright's soon.

The friends of Rev. Lucock and wife presented them, on yesterday evening, with a handsome silver tea set, token of grateful remembrance.

Charley Frash, of Hartford City, Ind., a prominent business man of that place, is visiting this week, his old home friends in Logan and meeting with a hearty welcome.

Mrs. Catharine Hockman living about two miles south of Gibsonville will sell at public sale on Saturday, Oct. 25th, a lot of fine stock and farming utensils, for part of her estate.

Mr. Peter Zahm, of Huntington, Indiana, and one of the prominent citizens of that section of the Hoosier state, is visiting friends and relatives in Logan this week. He is an ardent Democrat and feels sure that Cleveland will carry Indiana and be elected next president.

General John H. Wolf, the veteran fireman of New York, erstwhile a collector and general delinquent agitator for the SENTINEL, drawing a salary for service in one of the departments at Washington, is on his way to Hocking to explain Blaine's record, show up Blaine's substitute to the eyes of the old soldiers.

Mr. Harry Stult left this morning for Marysville, where he will campaign for the next three weeks. Harvey's comrades in the three years' service send him words of cheer and encouragement, and the SENTINEL joins in the certain hope of his winning the greatest victory of his life in the war he has been waging for many cloudy years.

Grandfather Pierce and daughter, of Jackson, Ohio, are visitors in our city this week, the guests of his son, O. C. Pierce. The old gentleman is one of the pioneer abolitionists, and in his declining years enjoys as a reality what most of his contemporaries saw only in a dream, the emancipation of the slave in every civilized country below the sun.

Rev. Lucock leaves with his family this morning for Malta, his new charge. Mr. and Mrs. Lucock have made many pleasant social acquaintances in our town, with all of whom the SENTINEL joins in feeling of regret at the loss to our social circle, and tender good wishes for as many and as warm friends greeting them, coming as they leave behind sorrowing for their departure.

We expect that the largest, best, most complete stock of millinery and fancy goods ever seen in this part of the country can be found on exhibition and for sale, at the lowest possible margin, at Mary & Kate Kesslers. They are the leaders in millinery, and in shaping and trimming are certainly artists. If you contemplate buying winter hat, you can save money by purchasing of them. They have everything in the millinery line.

"The Leader" is the name of a laundry soap which our enterprising grocer, Mr. C. E. Pierce, has made especially for his trade. The soap is not very fancy in its tint and flavor or finish. These ingredients cost more than the washing elements of the soap. They may make the cake look prettier, but don't help in washing to make the water dirtier. Pierce's "Leader" is pure soap. The customers don't be charged with coloring matter nor perfume. He gets what he wants and pays only for soap. Try it, we have, and recommend it.

Uncle Darius White, who has been out West a month or more visiting among his children, has returned home in improved health and spirits. When he first went out among the boys he said he didn't expect to stay long—it would only take a day or two to eat them out of house and home, but after he got there and saw the broad fields of corn, the bins full of grain, the herds of hogs rolling in fat, and the droves of cattle lazy with fat, he concluded the job too big for him, so after staying a month or more in voluptuous living, he has come back to tell all the uncles and aunts and cousins that the West is a good place to go on a visit.

We had a pleasant call last week from our friend, "Billy" Fink, Jr., of Somerset, who was here attending the circuit court. William E. Fink, Jr., is a chip of the old block in his legal ability and personal integrity. He eclipses his distinguished father, long our leader in Congress, in the ornate finish of his impassioned eloquence before the people or before the court. His nomination of Mr. Hysell, at the Democratic Congressional Convention at Logan two years ago, was one of the most eloquent presentations we have ever heard, and would merit a place side by side with the "Plumed Knight" effort of Ingersoll or the "Hancock" of the "Superb," of Dan Doherty. Mr. Fink is a rising man in his profession, and in oratory has few equals among men of his age. He makes the oration, by special request, on Columbus day, the 21st, at Chillicothe, the old capitol, the hearthstone of Larry Neal, the forum of Allen G. Thurman and his illustrious antecedent, Old Bill Allen. The young orator from Somerset will be on grand historic stamping and stumping ground of the old men eloquent, and we predict he will not fail in justice to the occasion nor the ancients who gave preceded him.

Off to Portsmouth.

On last Monday morning a pleasant company of ladies and gentlemen left for Portsmouth with a view to combining a business trip with an October fall excursion. The gentlemen are identified with our fire clay works and the clay works at Portsmouth, and also interested in a railroad in Kentucky. Of the party are Mr. C. E. Bowen and wife, J. C. Rochester and wife, W. H. Woodruff and wife, J. E. Tritesch, James Henderson, Joel Kitts Miller, Mrs. John Hoply of Bucyrus, Miss Maggie Saunerning, formerly of Logan; now the society editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, and Miss George Hoply, journalist of Columbus.

The gentlemen will figure on brick and float railroad stocks and the ladies will study the styles of the calico clothes in which the southern forests will be dressed. Miss "Pet" will contribute an article detailing the conduct of the statesmen and incidents and adventures of the excursionists for next week's SENTINEL.

We bespeak for the company a pleasant trip and a safe return, and promise our readers a delightful reading from the pen of our special correspondent.

Council Proceedings.

Council met in regular session last Tuesday evening. Mayor's report of money collected in month of September, accepted and placed on file. A petition signed by a number of citizens asking that the light located on top of hill near Thomas' residence, be removed to top of hill on Spring Street, signed another petition was read, also a number of citizens asking that the light remain where it has been located. Both petitions were referred to committee on street lighting. The resolution compensating firemen for actual service at fires, $2.00 each, was lost on its third reading. Finance committee reported favorable on bills to the amount of $730.47. Councilman Tipton spoke of certain trees on Second Street, over Canal bank, that would obstruct the throw of light across the canal into Gallagher Addition, from light at Jim Brown's corner. On motion of Hett, Street Commissioner was ordered to cut down the trees. No further business council adjourned.

Circuit Court.

Circuit court held session in Logan, on last week, beginning on Thursday, and closing on Saturday afternoon. Judges Cherrington and Russell on the bench. In the case of the Salt Creek Pike, the court sustained the common pleas and probate court, in the order of abandonment of the toll gates. This case has been ably tried, and the arguments have involved the principle of constitutional right, as well as the law, special powers of courts and legislatures. The decision is quite a compliment to Judge Acker, sustaining him in his position upon the facts presented to him and the law bearing in the case. Unless the case is appealed, the turnpike is henceforth a free road.

COLUMBUS DAY.

Up to this time our authorities, school and municipal, have given out no announcement for the celebration of the anniversary of the discovery of America, proclaimed by the president and the governor as a national holiday, and its observance urged by every church in this country.

The civilized world, next year, will celebrate by an exhibition of civilized products, such as never before has the sun shone on, the opening proceeding to take place next Friday, at Chicago, by the constituted authorities of our several states and the nation.

Our schools in cities, hamlets and country districts are especially urged to make such demonstration as will make the Anniversary, in all it implies, memorable to this generation.

Why not have on that day the Logan schools parade the streets of our city, the weather being favorable of course, each school in charge of its teacher. Three fourths of our citizens have never seen our school. Indeed perhaps excepting the superintendent, none of us have.

Let us show our schools to ourselves, parade our streets with an army with books and banners and bands, if need be. Our school is our glory, and from superintendent to the toddling, lisping Abnerian, we can defy comparison with any city in this country. Let us have this proudest of Logan's product, her bright, handsome children, in charge of their kind, capable and prudent teachers, brought before us, and the world and the heavens to look upon.

It is told that once when a company of the grand ladies of Rome called upon the mother of the Gracchi, the heroic twin Tribunes of the people, displaying their diamonds, pearls and glittering gems, inquired of the stately dame who dressed becoming the mother of heroes, where were her adornments, she called in her two boys, and with proud look, worthy to the mother of boys to become immortal, she pointed to them saying: "These are my jewels!"

Why not mother Logan, in the presence of any company and in conscious possession, do the same?

A Corner Lot and an Acre of Ground Free—The Man Long Looked For.

SIX AT A BIRTH AND ALL BOYS—THE WIFE OF A NORTH CAROLINA MOUNTAINEER BEATS THE RECORD.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Sept. 30th.—The wife of Charles Billings, a poor, illiterate mountaineer, living in Ashe county, North Carolina, twenty-one miles from the nearest railroad station, has just given birth to six children, all boys. They weigh from four and a half to nine pounds each, and are all alive.

Mrs. Billings is of a medium stature and thirty-one years old. She has four other children, but they were all born singly.

Billings depends on game, fish, etc., for a living, but since the arrival of the sextet he has been accepting congratulations and donations extended by rural hospitality.

THE MOTHERWELLS.

Court Proceedings in the Case.

On last Tuesday V. C. Lowry held court as Referee in the Motherwells case. He found that the incorporation was insolvent, that the assets are about $40,000. He also passed upon credits and debts. The finding of the Referee was agreed to by all parties interested.

On yesterday Judge Hoffman held court. The report of the Referee was accepted and approved, except an item of allowance of $40.00 to Keyes & Woodruff for the use of the natural gas, they claiming the ownership of the gas plant. This item was held under consideration until the 24th.

The referee was allowed a fee for service of $150.00. Bills were also allowed to the clerk and officers for work done under direction of the court.

F. C. Rochester, Receiver, made his report. The amount of money on hand, or rather received by him, money coming in every day, the exact amount not ascertainable, being about $12,000. His report was accepted and received, and an order made that the amount of cash on hand be held and not paid on any claim until further ordered by the court.

Mr. F. C. Rochester was reappointed Receiver, with bond in $40,000.

A MOB MARCHING

On to a Georgia Jail to Lynch a Murderer—The Troops on Hand. Augusta, Ga., Oct. 4.—A mob of about 100 men, armed with clubs and stones, marched through the city on Sunday night, shouting and singing, and demanding the release of a prisoner. The mob was dispersed by the police.

At midnight the mob had started for the jail. The jail is heavily guarded, and it is expected that the mob will be dispersed. The mob was seen to be armed with clubs and stones, and was shouting and singing.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 4.—A special to the morning Herald, from Penn Yan, says: While threshing on the farm of Frank Whitaker, in the town of Torrey, the boiler burst, blowing out both ends, and a heavy stick of timber was hurled into the barn, striking a man named Rapley, who was feeding the machine, and driving it completely through his chest, causing almost instant death. A number of other persons who were standing near were considerably bruised or shocked by the explosion.

DUFFY KNOCKED

Out by Jack Ketch and Dies in an Hour—All Participants Arrested.

SPRING CITY, Pa., Oct. 4.—William Duffy, alias "Bully" Dick Ketch, and Jack Ketch, a heavy-weight, engaged in a prize fight at the Fashion theatre at Covington, across the river, Sunday night. Duffy was killed and died an hour later. All the participants are under arrest.

The Pope's Representative.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Monsignor Sallati, a delegate apostolic from Pope Leo, will shortly arrive in this country ostensibly to inform himself as to the growth and influence of the church here. There will be a meeting of the American archbishops in New York in November, at which the school question will be discussed. On account of the wide divergence of views, it is said that it will be desirable to have the Pope's representative present.

Greeting to Queen Christina.

MADRID, Oct. 4.—The members of the cabinet, the highest military and civil authorities, and the members of the diplomatic corps, were at the railway station to meet Queen Recent Christina and King Alfonso on their return here Monday from San Sebastian, where they have been for some time past. The carriages containing the royal party passed through enthusiastic throngs of people. The court will remain in Madrid until October 7.

Repub. Men Gathering.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The Republicans will take advantage of the presence of big crowds here during the World's fair dedication exercises by holding an immense rally, which will be an effort to make to have Sherman, McKinley, Depece and other famous speakers. The national committee will be asked to back the scheme.

Jay Gould Not in It.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The officers of the Elevated Roads deny the report that Jay Gould has purchased the stock of the President Bernard of the South Side "L." says he doesn't believe there is any prospect of his doing so.
